

Quality Assurance

The owners and employees of KryoNet Magyarország Kft. are committed to high quality performance. In order to underpin this the Company got certified to conform with the ISO 9001:2000 Management System Standard. The implemented and continuously maintained Quality Management System defines the activities and business processes of the Company.

KryoNet Magyarország Kft.'s main areas of activities are Project Management services, IT Consulting services, Software Development and System Maintenance. The ISO Quality Management Standard applies to all of these focus areas.

High service standards, standardized methods in software development, applying standardized tools and solutions are all cornerstones of the Company's activities. In order to meet these attention to compatibility and data integrity, setting up and meeting security strategies, and paying attention to efficient time and resource allocation are also a fundamental requirements in our processes as well as their systematic monitoring and adaptation.